Clown Feet

Clown Feet

I have got a big box in my bedroom.
I put on my clown hair. I put on my red clown nose. I put on my big clown feet.

Look at all the clouds! I swing up and down. My clown feet go up and down. “Look out!” shouts Tim.

I frown. Clown feet are so big!
Clown feet are not good on a swing.
Tim helps me. I stand up.

Look at that cloud!

I like my clown nose. I like my clown hair. But I take off my clown feet.
I swing up and down all day.

Look, read and say.

The Cat on the Bus

The Cat on the Bus

We are on the bus in town. Look! There is a cat on the bus. Dad has got a big frown. He counts to five and he shouts, "Get out, cat!" The cat jumps down the steps.

Look! The cat is in our hall. Mum has got a big frown. She counts to five and she shouts, "Get out, cat!" The cat runs down the path.

Where's the cat? It's here! It's in our shed. The cat has got a big frown.

I count to five ...

... and I smile.

Here, cat. Do you like milk?

Me-ow!

Look and order the story.

Look, match and say.
