Praise be to Allah and Peace be upon His Messenger, Mohammed

Education is key for personal development, and it provides a wealth of opportunities in life. The commitment and efforts we put into education are some of the most fundamental investments we can make towards securing the future wellbeing of Oman and its citizens.

Our education system has been the bedrock of our development. It has provided this generation and those before it with the skills and knowledge that have driven the country's growth and, with it, our prosperity. But to meet our high aspirations as expressed in Oman's Vision 2040 amidst an increasingly competitive global environment, we cannot stand still.

To compete with the best in the world, our education system must develop young Omanis who are knowledgeable, think critically and creatively, have leadership skills and are able to communicate effectively in English with the rest of the world. Just as importantly, our students must be instilled with values, ethics and a sense of citizenship that will empower them to make the right choices for themselves, their families and the country.

Given Oman's historical and geographical profile, mastering English as a second language is an absolute necessity for all our students. It is the language of international communication and is also the main language for studying other subjects all over the world. Therefore, the Ministry took the decision to adopt and customise an international series called 'Team Together' that is benchmarked to the Global Scale of English (GSE) and the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), both of which are internationally recognised standards for describing language ability.

This series is based on the most cutting-edge research on teaching and learning. It will embed and develop Future Skills such as critical and creative thinking, as well as encourage holistic, well-rounded personal growth. This series will prepare our children to meet the challenges of a pluralistic society that welcomes diversity, a knowledge-based job market that is constantly evolving, and economic globalisation.

Finally, I hope that you find this book useful and enjoyable, and use it in your everyday lives, as this will enable us all to contribute to the success of our beloved country – the Sultanate of Oman – as led by the inspiration and wisdom of His Majesty, Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you every success in life.

Dr. Madiha bint Ahmed Al-Shaibani

Minister of Education

INTERESTING DISCOVERIES IN OMAN

There are many ancient sites in Oman and every year, people make amazing new discoveries about the past. Let's learn about three of them.

SINAW HOARD

In 1979, people found an old blue jar made of clay in Sinaw. Inside the jar were 962 silver coins! The coins were about 1,400 years old and they weren't all from Oman. Some were from Egypt, Spain and other countries. It's the most important discovery of coins in Oman!

Fun fact

Did you know that Bahla Fort and Al Balid are UNESCO World Heritage Sites?

BAIT AL-QUFL

In the mountains of Musandam, the people used stone and clay to make special houses. In the summer, the people travelled to the sea, and used special keys to lock the houses. In this way, their food was safe for when they returned. You can see the Bait al Qufl houses today. Wow!

BAT TOWER

In Bat, near Ibri, you can find some round stone towers. We don't know what people used the towers for, because some of them are more than 5,000 years old! This makes them some of the most important towers in the world.

The Deep Well

On Tuesday, the class visited an ancient castle. They learned a lot about the castle in the past. They started to write about it.

Many years ago, people used clay and stone to build this castle.

Look at this well.

Rahaf needed her eraser. It was in her bag. There was also a little comb in her bag. When Rahaf opened her bag, she dropped the comb in the deep well.

Rahaf and Rashid looked in the well.
It was very deep. What was at the bottom of the well?

What should we do?

I can see your comb,
Rahaf! But what is that?
Is it a khanjar?

Rahaf and Rashid worked quickly and carefully.

It was an ancient khanjar! A man dropped it in the well by mistake many years ago.

This khanjar is more important than my comb.

We should show it to our teacher. I think it belongs in a museum!

A Special Jar

On Wednesday, the class visited the museum. They arrived at ten o'clock. First, they looked at some traditional jewellery. Then they looked at some ancient jars.

At school on Thursday, the children did a fun activity.
They used clay to make their own little jars.

You've got some clay on your wrist.

Use your fingers and
thumbs to push the clay.
It's very soft and wet.

Thank you, Saif!

Nassra and Saif finished their jars first. They didn't need all the clay. There was lots of clay on the table.

Wow, we worked quickly today. What should we do now?

We should carry on. Look at this clay. I've got an idea!

Nassra and Saif worked together to make a special jar for their teacher. They wanted to thank her for the visit to the museum. The teacher was very pleased.

Thank you. You are very kind! I can put my favourite rings in this jar.

Celebrations in the Arab world

Ramadan in Egypt

I learned about Ramadan in Egypt last week. Ramadan is the 9th month of the Hijri year. When the sun goes down, lights come on at all the mosques and there are decorations in many streets. The shops are open late and many people buy pretty lanterns to put in their homes. Ramadan in Egypt is colourful and fun!

Al-Taimeena

In Oman, children celebrate Al-Taimeena when they finish learning the Quran. When my brother finished it last year, he walked around the streets wearing traditional clothes and carrying a lantern. He said a special Du'a and then enjoyed sweets and other food with our friends and family. It was a beautiful day.

Eid Al-Adha

People celebrate Eid Al-Adha on 10th Dhu Al-Hijjah. Last year, I prayed at the mosque with my family on the first day. Then we visited our friends and relatives. They gave me some presents! I like Eid Al-Adha. Which celebration do you like?

Fun fact

On Oman National Day, many buildings have white, red and green lights on them, the colours of the Omani flag.

An unusual birthday party!

Something funny happened at Samira's birthday party at the weekend!
We asked her all about it.

Interviewer: Hi, Samira! Tell us what happened at your party!

Samira: Well, I had my birthday party at my house. There were about 20 friends. First, we played some party games. We all wore funny party hats! Then, Mum and Dad put the food and drink on long tables. My birthday cake was at one end of the table. There was a buffet: I ate a lot of sandwiches, crisps and cupcakes! After that we played more party games in the garden.

Interviewer: OK. It sounds fun! What happened next?

Samira: It was time for the birthday cake, so we went back into the house. But the cake wasn't on the table! Then we saw my cat, Patch. He was asleep under the table, on his back. There was cake all over his face!

At the Funfair

It was 19th July – Max's birthday! Max liked going to the funfair, so he asked Harry to go with him. Harry gave Max a baseball cap for his birthday. Max put his new cap on.

First, the boys went on the go-karts. Then, they went on the rollercoaster. Finally, they went on the big wheel. They had lots of fun! But after the big wheel, Max stopped and touched the top of his head.

Max and Harry quickly ran back to the rollercoaster.

Max saw his baseball cap on the tunnel on a bridge. It was very high. The rollercoaster stopped and a man got the cap for Max.

Thanks for your help!

You're welcome.

The Animal Party

My birthday is 25th April. Last year, I had a birthday party. I like animals, so I had an animal party. I gave invitations to all my friends. I asked them to dress up in costumes.

My friends all wore different animal costumes. They dressed up as a black and white zebra, an orange giraffe, a green crocodile and a black and white panda. I was a lion. We had a delicious buffet. We ate tasty burgers and little animal cakes. We drank chocolate milkshake.

After the buffet, we went in the garden and we played party games. I loved the party games. We had lots of fun. Then I saw something strange. It was behind the gate.

Is that an elephant?
Is it really an elephant?

I was wrong. It wasn't an elephant at all. It was Dad! It was his amazing elephant costume. He had a large birthday cake for me. My favourite animal was on top of the cake.

Happy birthday!
I made this lion
cake for you.

It's very special.
Thank you, Dad!
